Vision & Mission

Vision

Integral Development and growth of students through an in-depth study and understanding of life, as a result of the true synthesis of all-encompassing information, the purpose of learning and wisdom, enabling them to attain perfection and transformation into an enlightened being.

Mission

To bring to the students and the staff an opportunity to understand the fundamental principles of Integral Education and yoga in the Light of Sri Aurobindo, the prophet of modern philosophy, the founder of the National Education Concept and alumni of the University.

Sri Aurobindo

- Sri Aurobindo was born in Calcutta on 15th August, 1872.
- Studied in the Kings College Cambridge.
- In 1890 he passed the open competition for the Indian Civil Service.
- He returned to India in 1893, upon an invitation from the Maharaja Sayajirao Gaekwar

- He spent 13 years in Baroda as an administrator in the Baroda State and a Professor of English at the Baroda College.
- In 1906, Sri Aurobindo went to Bengal and openly took up the leadership of the revolutionary movement.
- In April 1910, sailed for Pondicherry in French India.
- In 1926, with the help of the Mother, he founded Sri Aurobindo Ashram and developed a new spiritual path.

- His vision of life is presented in numerous works of prose and poetry, among which the best known are The Life Divine, The Synthesis of Yoga, Savitri, The Foundations of the Indian Culture, The Secrets of the Veda, The essays on Gita, The Human Cycle, The Mother, the Ideal of Human Unity.
- Sri Aurobindo decided to leave his body on 5th December, 1950
